NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR, KRISTA

I love musicals. And I love fairy tales. So a musical fairy tale...? It's "Impossible" not to love that.

In a world where kindness is too often forgotten, CINDERELLA reminds us that, "everyone deserves to be treated with kindness and respect." This musical is the most beautiful kind of escapism - we're drawn into a world where goodness overcomes evil; where the characters we love live "happily ever after"; and, of course, where folks randomly break into song and dance. That's my kind of world!

Dallas Theater is a jewel. For those who have lived here forever and maybe don't realize what you have here -- it is rare and beautiful! A city that supports the arts?? I have friends all over the country who go bug-eyed when I tell them that. Then they grow green with envy. Then they ask if our city will call theirs!

This cast and crew are all superstars in my book. There is SO much talent - as you'll see! Every person - onstage and behind-the-scenes - has worked diligently and joyfully to create this beloved story. It has been a pleasure to work with each of them.

We hope you laugh, you sigh, and you cheer as you watch this production. And we hope you take a little fairy tale magic with you as you leave!

PRODUCTION BIOS

Emily Shipp (Producer) got her start at the Dallas Theater 14.5 years ago in the Main Street Players first production, Steel Magnolias. Not only did she land one of her dream roles as M'Lynn, she also walked away with a full-time position directing the Dallas Theater! While she misses being on stage, there is nothing more fulfilling than leading a team who continues to create a space where all are welcome to be a part of quality, entertaining, community theatre.

Ginger Corley (Music Director) is thrilled to be a part of the Dallas Theater's production of Cinderella! She is a retired high school choral music director of 30 years, and loves staying involved with our talented local teens.

Krista McGee (Director) has directed over 25 musicals, led Thespian troupes, and taught musical theater classes, camps, and workshops in several schools and theaters, in several states, over the last 18 years. She is honored to be working with this talented cast and crew in her second production with Dallas Theater.

Shelley Hubbard (Production Manager) been a producer and production manager for 22 Dallas Theater Productions -- and could not be more proud of the growth this program has seen. She is eternally grateful to the cast, crew, and production team for making a hard job much easier. When she's not sending a million emails a week, she spends her time at home watching pro-wrestling with her husband Christopher and her two cats, Booster and Sofia.
